SPLENDID AND COSY JEWELRY.

There are few houses in any department of trade or business in the West exhibiting the same spirit of enterprise as the Jewelry house of Nease, John Kite & Co., Main, south side, between Fourth and Fifth streets. There is nothing in their line, however, and costly, that they do not keep. The large assortment of watches from the most celebrated makers in Europe, together with diamond rings, breast pins, &c., go to make up an establishment for which completeness is not excelled. Silverware of the most elegant, chaste, and beautiful design, and tea, dessert, and table spoons innumerable, are embodied in the general stock, or manufactured at the shortest notice. It is worthy the attention of the public, visiting anything in the jewelry line, to look through this establishment.

LOCOMOTIVE TONIC.

The preparation bearing the name of Hough's Tonic is a most valuable remedy in chills and fevers. We speak knowingly; for we have seen its effects in many cases. After the most violent fits of either remedies without success, malignant cases of long standing have yielded to the use of a single bottle of Hough's Tonic. It acts like a charm upon the system, bracing it up above the disease, and leaves none of the bad effects of quinine. It is pronounced the remedy whenever it is known, not one long does not it find a ready sale in all sections of the Union where chills and fevers are known.

LEXINGTON.

The library of the late James G. Percival, the poet, numbering over seven thousand volumes, says the Madison (Wis.) Courier, is to be sold by the administrator. The Courier suggests that the State of Wisconsin should purchase it and place it in the library of the State Historical Society.

ALARM OF FIRE.

The alarm of fire last night between 10 and 11 o'clock was caused by the appearance of a great light in the direction and neighborhood of Postland and New Albany.

LEXINGTON.

We are indebted to Adams Express and to Mr. Putnam, Mail Agent on the Louisville and Lexington cars, for files of papers in advance of the mail.

THE DOCTOR.

The pump at the corner of third and Market streets has been out of repair for some time. The "Doctor" will please attend to this case, and confer favorably on the neighborhood.

LEXINGTON.

The Southern portion of this State has been blessed with several delightful showers during the past week.

NOTICE.

There has been a good deal of amusement for several days past amongst the boys in the way of kite flying."

NOTICE.

The whole vote of this city amounts to about $1,000. Our friends at a distance will note that there was no party contest in Louisville, to vote shows this. There are at least six hundred votes in this city, not more than half of being polled.

NOTICE.

The New Albany jail was again broken open on Friday night last. All the prisoners except Hayes escaped. Roys would not leave.

NOTICE.

The Know-Nothings polled nearly all their votes yesterday. They drummed hard by their organ and procession.

NOTICE.

James D. Taylor, long the editor of the Cincinnati Tribune, has left the tripod and retired to the country.

NOTICE.

Gen. Lane is preparing a reply to Mr. Birney's card, in defense of Mr. Brooks.

THE FREDONIUM.

I look forward to the day when shall be a servile insurrection in the South; when the black man, armed with British bayonets, and led on by British officers, shall assert his freedom, and wage a war of extermination against his master; when the torch of the incendiary shall light up the town of New Orleans, and the South burn out the last vestige of slavery; and though I may not mock at their calamity, yet I will hail it as the dawn of a political millennium."—[John R. Giddings.]

NOTICE.

There is a higher law than the constitution, which regulates our authority over the slaves, and you can and must do what you ought to do to relinquish it. You will bring the parties of the country into active aggression upon slavery!"—[William H. Seward.]

NOTICE.

What party is not only dead, but buried?"—[Benjamin F. Wade.]

NOTICE.

"I am willing, in a certain way of circumstances, to let the Union slide. [N. B. Parks.]

NOTICE.

In the case of the alternative being presented, a continuance of my present dissolution of the Union is the best alternative, and I care not how soon it comes."—[R. P. Spalding.]

NOTICE.

On the action of this convention depends the fate of the country; if the Republican fall at the ballot box we will be forced to drive back the slaveocracy with fire and sword!"—[James W. Webb.]

NOTICE.

We are to demand and we must have an anti-slavery constitution, an anti-slavery Bible, and an anti-slavery God!"—[Anon. Baltimore.]

NOTICE.

"We have no doubt that the free and slave States ought to separate!"—[J. S. Price, of the New York Tribune.]

NOTICE.

"It is the duty of the North, in case they fail to elect a president and a Congress that will restore freedom to Kansas, to revolutionize the government."—[Resolution of a Black Republican meeting in Wisconsin.]

NOTICE.

"I pray daily that this accursed Union may be dissolved, even if blood has to be spilled!"—Black Republican Preacher of Poughkeepsie.

"I earnestly request Congress to present a bill to the effect that the necessary measures for the dissolution of the Union may be

BLOODY AFFRAY AND DEATH AT OAKLAND!

Yesterday afternoon, about 6 o'clock, an affray took place at the Oakland project, between El. Ship, Wm. Walker, and Hercules Walker, which resulted in the instantaneous death of Ship, and severe, perhaps mortal wounds, to both of the Walkers. The difficulty originated in a horse-race.

Ship and five or six others in the regular of the heart, any one of which would have killed him, were, however, and were, received a cut in the left arm and shoulder, while Hercules Walker was shot in the back, and will probably die before morning.

Deputy Sheriff Henry C. Morton, held an inquest on the body of Ship, at which the above facts were elicited; there was no evidence before the jury as to the party who shot El. Walker.

Verdict that Edward Ship came to his death from wounds inflicted by the hands of Wm. Walker. We shall probably to-day receive full particulars.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.

—Our play-going readers will be delighted to hear that the Theatre will be reopened in about a month, and with a strong company. Our old favorite, and the favorite of the public, J. G. Haskell, will have charge of the stage, and the fact of itself is sufficient guarantee that the season will be brilliant, beyond any we have ever had here. He will gather around him, so far as the facilities give him, the best of our young artists, and he will bring out new pieces calculated to please the public and draw good houses. We are not as yet advised as to the members of the company, but we know that some of the old favorites of the public will be among them. Besides, George Melius, the popular manager, will again have charge of the establishment, and will continue the liberality of last season in engaging the best stars in the country. We are heartily tired of the absence of all amusement from thereby, and we believe the great mass of playgoers are also.
